SALISBURY IN SWINGTIME!

Finally, something to lift off the spirits of financial depression - just as Busby Berkeley did in New York after the Wall Street Crash of 1929. Graham Dalby fronts a ten-piece line-up of seasoned London & International professionals in a glamorous evening of fabulous dance music from the 1920's to the 1950's. The venue is the splendid Salisbury Guildhall which, for one night each month, is to be transformed into a candle-lit Speakeasy reminiscent of The Roaring Twenties. Dance the night away or just stand and listen look nonchalant as you sip your drink and enjoy an evening of sophistication usually reserved for The West End. A bar will be available in the foyer and the evening will run from: 7:30-10:00 with the band on at 8:00. Guests are encouraged to dress up in anything from Flappers, Gangsters to 1940's GI's and Jivers. Come as you are or as you would wish: Marlene, Churchill, Frankie, whoever!

Posers, Cerocers, Salseros, Ballroomers, Jivers,
Two Left Feet...all welcome!
Tickets:£12.50 limited to 200
